Customers are responsible for arranging for the removal of goods deposited on the public highway and are advised to have labour available to do so. Orders for delivery are normally effected within 7 days.

Whilst every effort is made to adhere to delivery dates requested at the time of order, no claims may be made in the event of our being unable to make delivery on a specific day or part of day. Customers are, therefore, advised not to make arrangements for employing labour or sub-contractors until goods have been delivered to their satisfaction

Customers are requested to make certain for themselves that materials ordered are to their exact requirements.

Goods found to be surplus to requirements may not be returned for exchange, credit or refund.

The giving or sending of an order constitutes an acceptance of these terms.

These terms and conditions cancel all others and are subject to alteration without notice.

These terms and conditions do not affect your statutory rights. E&O.E.
